IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.34657 of 2008
SANJAY KUMAR RAM @ SANJAY DAS
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 10.9.2008 Heard.

The case is on a petition of complaint and the allegation is that the petitioner, who was the husband of the complainant, was asking to get the land of the father of the complainant transferred to him, which was refused and that resulted in ill-treatment and torture and ultimate expulsion of the lady from the matrimonial house along with her children.

The contention is that as a matter of fact the parents of the lady were asking the petitioner to settle down as Ghar Jamai which the petitioner used to rufuse and in a huff the lady walked out from the house of the petitioner and went to her parents house along with the children. Further contention is that there has been inconsistent stand of the petitioner that if the lady comes with the children and lives with him in his house, he will always welcome her.

Regard being had to the facts and circumstances of the case, let petitioner named above be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/-(Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Katihar, in connection with Complaint Case no.306 of 2007.
